

Art has the power to transform.
Make us linger. Hold us longer.
Ignite emotion. Connect us with space. We also know great design and architecture can completely change the way we experience a space. Our role is to bring together all worlds of art, design and architecture.
align • connect • deliver • curate

ALIGN

Us + Client

Familiarise with profile of client and stakeholders
Identify, understand and develop key client objectives
Develop key project milestones and project schedule
Discuss and detail project budget and budget schedule
Engage with all stakeholders to deepen understanding of project
Understand space, location and scale

CONNECT

Us + Artist + Client

Communicate client vision and project details
Seek, connect and engage with artists to execute project objectives
Define and clarify realistic budget and project schedule between artist and client
Recommend and present artists to client for consideration
Collaborate with both client and artist to evolve concepts
Uphold integrity and transparency to client and artists in all communication

DELIVER

Us + Client + Artist

Engage and establish legal agreements between artist and client
Maintain project and budget schedule
Coordinate interface between all stakeholders and artists
Oversee and communicate with both client and artists at every stage of production
Manage changes with innovative strategies and creative solutions
Finalise project completion between artists, client and ART CORPORATION with public event or private celebration

CURATE

Us + Client

Understand and establish artists' requirements for ongoing maintenance of works
Create strategy for ongoing management of artworks and installations
Establish schedule and budget for ongoing support and fulfillment of project vision
Provide regular reviews of project outcomes and ongoing curatorial consultation for client

US

We at ART CORPORATION know the difference art can make in the world.

It has the power to transform. Make us linger. Hold us longer. Ignite emotion.

Connect us with space.

We also know great design and architecture can completely change the way we experience space.

Our role is to bring together all worlds of art, design, architecture.

We collaborate with passion and innovation, engage with strategy and logic, build and broaden ideas.

We listen.

CLIENT

We appreciate strong direction.

Our focus is to understand project objectives presented by our clients.

We source the best artists to present and deliver a collaborative opportunity, whether it be residential, commercial or on the world stage.

Our network is continuously growing and our commitment is to facilitate a process from concept to completion.

ARTIST

We seek out passion and dynamism, originality and zeal, integrity and vision.

Our goal is to establish and strengthen relationships with artists, deepening our understanding of practice and approach, connecting artist to client and space.

We believe clear communication is paramount to the process.

Seamless management from the initial concept development to installation is our commitment.

